PUBLIC PORTION:

Joe Toscano, Washington Auto Sales, explained to the Township Committee his hardships with selling his cars and his reasons for parking the cars on the exterior of the fence overnight.

Mr. Kobert, Esq. explained to Mr. Toscano that he would need to have site plan approval for the parking of cars on the exterior of the fence otherwise the Township would be forced to issue him a violation.

Mr. Toscano explained that he felt that he was grandfathered and did not need to go before the board for approval.

Mr. Mace explained to Mr. Toscano that he is grandfathered for the junk yard, but that did not allow for cars to be parked on the exterior of the fence outside of his business hours.

Mr. Mace told Mr. Toscano that he would give him the chance to move the cars before he got out of the meeting and that if this was done then a violation would not be issued and that if he is looking to park the cars on the exterior of the fence he would need to go before the board for a variance and also for a site plan approval.
